

Chris Flesner, a recognized office leasing professional, joined the Century 21 Judge Fite Commercial Division in 2009.

A graduate of University of Texas Arlington (UTA), Flesner has been involved in leasing more than 385,000 square feet of office space in the Dallas area. He brings his experience and his business and marketing education to the office division of Century 21 Judge Fite Commercial.

Chris, who is a native Texan and a resident of Dallas, will be assisting office tenants and landlords with their needs in the dynamic markets of the DFW Metroplex and surrounding communities. He will focus on tenant representation and third-party leasing for office projects. Chris and the Office Division are actively seeking third-party office buildings to lease, as well as office properties for sale.
